Dear [REDACTED],

Re: SIRS application status update

We are pleased to inform you that your application for the Self-employed Person Income Relief Scheme (SIRS) has been successful.

You will receive a total of $2000 from the bank starting from the bank account number that you provided in your application. You will receive two instalments of $1,000 each in July and October 2020.

We hope that this will go some way in helping you with your expenses during this difficult period.

You may also wish to explore support programmes administered by NTUC such as

NTUC Training Fund (SEPs)

We are also pleased to inform you that this letter will serve as your "Letter of Eligibility" for the NTUC Training Fund (SEPs). Self-employed persons (SEPs) like yourself are eligible for up to $11/hr in training allowance when you attend SkillsFuture Series courses or selected training programmes. When applying for the approved training programmes, this letter will serve as your Letter of Eligibility, which should be submitted to the respective Institute of Higher Learning or approved training provider during the course application process. NTUC Cash Fund (COVID-19)

A one-off relief of up to $200 for eligible NTUC union members who suffer from a current coronavirus or income loss due to COVID-19. Eligible non-members can apply for up to $200. For more information, visit www.ntuc.org.sg/cashfund2020

Please also take note that you are not allowed to receive both SIRS and COVID-19 Support Grant (CSG). Individuals who have already received the current instalment of the COVID-19 Support Grant are not allowed to receive SIRS. Individuals whose SRS application is under review will also not proceed to put in an application for the COVID-19 Support Grant. It is important to be aware of the COVID-19 Support Grant and SIRS concurrently. Individuals may be required to repay the benefits received.

Stay safe and healthy.

Yours sincerely,
