

NTUC TRAINING FUND (SEPs) INFOKIT

STEP 1: APPLY FOR THE LETTER OF ELIGIBILITY

All self-employed (i.e. freelancers and sole-proprietors) Singapore citizens and Permanent Residents are eligible to apply for the NTUC Training Fund (SEPs) from the NTUC's Employment and Employability Institute (e2i).

Before applying/registering for any courses, you must first receive a Letter of Eligibility from NTUC's e2i.

However, if you have received the following:

- SIRS Letter/Email by NTUC or
- SIRS Auto-Eligibility Letter

You will not need to apply for the Letter of Eligibility.

If you do not have any of the above, please proceed to apply for the Letter of Eligibility.

To apply for the Letter of Eligibility:

A. Click  to submit your personal details on <https://e2i.com.sg/sep2020-form>

- B. Provide the following documents that indicate that you are a self-employed person;
- Consolidated statement of income / Notice of Assessment for year of assessment 2020 submitted to IRAS in capacity of SEP

Note: You must be a self-employed person (SEP) at the point of application and your main source of income is and has been from self-employment with positive Net Trade Income. You will not be eligible for this scheme if you have been suspended from claiming training grants from government agencies.

- C. Once your application is approved, you will receive a copy of the Letter of Eligibility from NTUC's e2i.

Table 1: How to Submit Your Application for the Letter of Eligibility

1 Before you begin your application, you will require SingPass. If you don't have SingPass, please view the guide here.

2 Click 'Submit Application' to submit your personal details.

3 Login to SingPass. Once you are logged in, you will be redirected to the form.

5 Complete the form and submit all the required documents.
Each session is 30 minutes.

4 Once your application is approved, you will receive a copy of the Letter of Eligibility from NTUC's e2i within 10 working days.
